NARRATOR: The Threshold Fairmont seven-piece dining set brings comfort and style together for your outdoor space.

The dining set is shown in front of a white background. Four chairs are placed around a rectangular dining table, along with a bench. Plants are staged around the dining set.

A woman places a wooden bowl onto the table, which already holds wine glasses and a cheese plate.

A pillow is placed on one of the chairs.

NARRATOR: We designed this casual and stylish set using durable powder and E-coated frames for rust resistance.

Close-up shots show the details of the chair's cushions and metal frames.

The base of one of the chairs rests on a rug beneath the table.

NARRATOR: The chairs were made to be stackable to allow for quick and easy storage.

A woman places one of the metal chair frames on top of another.

NARRATOR: The upholstered cushions feature Velcro straps to stay in place and the fabric is weather and fade-resistant.

A Velcro strap attached to the cushion is secured around the frame of the chair.

A close-up shot shows details of the fabric on the cushion of the chair.

NARRATOR: This set includes two stationary chairs, two swivel chairs, a bench, and a dining table with slatted frame design and a hole for an umbrella.

A woman pours white wine from a carafe into a wine glass on the table.

One of the swivel chairs spins around.

The cushioned bench is pushed in, under the table.

The slatted frame of the dining table is shown, along with the umbrella hole.

The entire set of furniture is shown on top of a rug in front of the white background.

NARRATOR: The Threshold Fairmont Collection, only available at Target.

The screen fades to white and a red Target Bullseye appears.
